The Morart Society.

Mr. W. F. Ha nner moved that the following gentlemen be selected as delegates at large for the county to act as far as consistent at Nashville: Judge H. T. Ellett, Ed Shaw, J. M. Harris, W. H. Rhea, J. R. Godwin, J. F. Biggs, R. R. Church, R. A. Spicer, H. Irby, A. Froman, C. W. Frazer, M. C. Gallaway and J. Harvey Mathes.

Judge T. W. Brown opposed the resolution, and Mr. J. J. Dubose did no: see any reason for the selection of delegates at large to represent the county. Mr. James Phelan made a short but vigorous address in favor of the resolution. He said the counts was under some obligation to Shaw, alid as they had nailed it promise to him that they had failed it fulfill, he thought it nothing more mittees on credentials, permanent organization and resolutions be appointed, and that delegates should be selected upon the basis of one for every 100 voters and one additional in each ward for every fifty voters or more over even hundreds. RESOLUTIONS OF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE. Mr. Harris then read the following: Mr. Harris then read the following:

Resolved, That in assembling as Democrats we recognize no past differences, we know no friendships te subserve, no enmities nor wrongs to avenge, but with an eye single to the supremacy of the Democracy—national, State and county; we cheerfully fall into line with a firm dewe cheerfully fail into line with a firm de-termination to overcome our common enemy in the approaching campaign.

Resolved, That whereas, offtimes hereto-fore, the power and influence of the Shel-by delegations to State conventions have been wasted and frittered away by means of factious divisions in their own ranks, it be and is the sense of this convention, that our delegation to the State Convention, to convene at the capital on the ISth dev of address in favor of the resolution. He said the Sounts was under some obligation to Shaw, slid as they had made a promise to him that they had tailed it fulfill, he thought it nothing more than justice that this small return should be made Shaw and his friends for the aid they had formerly rendered. Mr. Harris said that he had promised the gentlemen whose names appeared on the committee some recognition, and it would be nating in bad faith if the convention reliesed to certry, out his promises, made in behalf of the Executive Committee of the Democratic party.

Mr. Dubose said he had objected on general principles and without having heard the names of three persons mentioned in the resolution, and that he simply objected because he could not see anything to be gained by the adoption of the resolution. He did not see anything to be gained by the adoption of the resolution. The question was then put and the resolution adopted with but one disserting twice.

Jonesboro (Ark.) Democrat: It is indeed gratifying to the friends of the Bluff City to observe the rapid and gigantic strides she is making toward supremacy in the commercial world. Memphis has long enloyed the distinction of being the leading extron ment of the Missisalppi Valley, and notwithstanding floods and epidemics have done much to retard her progress, she is rapidly coming to the front as a railroad and manufacturing center. The sanitary system of the city, which is the result of sad experience and the skillful ingenuity of her leading citizens and sanitarians, is universally admired and commended as being far in advance of any other Southern city. Therefore the ques-ACR MALARIA, FORPID LIVER AND BILIOUSNESS, Bat and drink what you please, for it will not salivate you.
